

Fisheries and Oceans
Canada

Pêches et Océans
Canada

INTERNATIONAL AQUACULTURE WORKSHOP
Environmental and Social Responsibility for Sustainable
Aquaculture

Santo Tomas University, Chile
March 20-21, 2006

Ms. Carol Ann Rose

Carol Ann Rose holds a Master's of Psychology from the University of New Brunswick (1973) and Bachelor of Arts from Mount Allison University (1970).

Carol Ann began her career in 1972 with the Department of Health, Province of Nova Scotia. From 1977 to 1985, she was a regular member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. She then became the Senior Enforcement Examiner for Atlantic Canada, National Transportation Agency; a post she held until joining the Department of Fisheries and Oceans in 1990 as the Regional Director, Conservation & Protection, Gulf Region.

From 1996 until 2002, Carol Ann was the Area Director, Southwest New Brunswick. Subsequently, she undertook a ten-month assignment as acting Regional Director, Oceans and Habitat, and in December, 2003, was appointed Regional Director, Policy and Economics. Carol Ann has been acting Regional Director, Oceans and Habitat, Maritimes Region, since September, 2004.